Forecast For Northeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Thursday 21 Oct 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Chilly overnight. Bright and breezy with sunshine and showers Friday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry for many overnight with clear spells, although isolated blustery rain showers may affect one or two places. Becoming chilly by dawn with a slight frost possible in some rural spots, although the extent should be limited by the wind. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Friday:
After a chilly start, a bright and breezy day developing, with a few further blustery showers possible as well as sunny spells. Becoming less windy later, with fewer, lighter showers. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Fine at first Saturday, however becoming cloudier and windier, ahead of rain pushing erratically southeast into Sunday. Blustery sharp showers should then follow into the new week. Temperatures near average.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.